

SYLLABUS

Academic Term	2019-2020 Spring
Course Name / Code	GEOPOLITICS – CIR 312
Instructor	Asst. Prof. Övgü Kalkan Küçüksolak, PhD
Course Hours	Wednesday, 13:00-16:00, 16:00-19:00

Aim of the Course

This course is designed to address the key concepts, main issues and competing visions of geopolitics. In the first part of the course, the focus will be on the imperialist origins of geopolitical thought, where as in the second part Cold War geopolitics will be analyzed through its practices and consequences. In the third part of the course, the geopolitical frame of the post Cold-War period will be discussed through the "new world order" debates and the last part of the course will introduce anti-geopolitical discourses on the key issues of power, gender and political economy with the aim of offering multidimensional 'new geopolitics' of the late twentieth century.

Learning Outputs

Upon completion of this course, you will be able to:

- be familiar with the key geopolitical themes and concepts
- be able to analyze geopolitical issues from a critical perspective
- be able to discuss causes, consequences and discourse of contemporary geopolitics

Method

The instructor may use studies, lectures, presentations, questions, discussions and exercises from variety of sources such as the textbook, articles, web sources and etc. The course is taught in English.

Attendance Procedures

- According to regulations, course attendance is obligatory.
- Attendance is a significant and serious indicator of success in the course. Students are responsible for arriving class on time, following the flow of courses carefully and remaining in the class until the end of session.
- Course contents are tightly related and sessions continue progressively. Thus, missing courses will negatively affect the overall achievement of students.

Note: In case you miss a class, please contact your instructor via e-mail and learn the contents mentioned in class. Also check if you have any assignments due for the Geopolitics course. Even if you miss a class because of unexpected and involuntary reasons, make sure to cover the topics and catch up with your classmates. At the end of the term, instructor will check the attendance of all students in class.

Academic Dishonesty

Plagiarism will not be tolerated under any circumstance and no excuse will be accepted. If you ever use a source, cite it properly as seen above. Those quotation marks make a huge difference. Cheating (in Turkish “aldatmak”, “sahtekarlık”, “hile”) known as “kopya” is a serious and punishable act. We strongly recommend that you keep your benign reputation as IR student.

Course Adjustments and Changes

The course syllabus is an overall guide for the Geopolitics class. Instructor reserves the right to make periodic and specific changes-adjustments to the syllabus, which can cover topics, reading materials, assignments, group projects, case studies, schedule, examinations, etc. in order to accommodate the needs of the class as a whole and fulfill the goals of the course.
